The Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has the ultimate responsibility for the company's organization and administration and reaches decisions on strategic matters. In the financial year 2016, Beijer Electronics' Board of Directors had six members appointed by the AGM.

Beijer Electronics has not set any specific age limit for Board members, nor any time limit for how long a Board member can serve on the Board of Directors. For detailed information on Board members, see the Group's website and page 81.

The role of the Chairman of the Board

Apart from leading the Board of Directors' work, the Chairman of the Board of Beijer Electronics continuously monitors progress by maintaining ongoing contact with the Chief Executive Officer on strategic matters. The Chairman of the Board represents the Group on ownership-related matters.

The Board of Directors' working methods

The Board of Directors' work conforms to a yearly plan. Decisions are taken by the Board after an open discussion led by the Chairman. The Chief Financial Officer of Beijer Electronics, also Compliance Officer for the Code of Corporate Governance, serves as Secretary of the Board of Directors. Apart from the Board meeting following election, which is held coincident with the AGM, the Board normally meets five times per year (scheduled meetings). Extra meetings are convened when necessary. The Board of Directors' and Chief Executive Officer's rules of procedure are adopted yearly at the Board meeting following election. Each meeting follows an agenda, with supporting documentation provided to Board members in good time before each Board meeting.

The Annual Accounts, proposed appropriation of profits and the financial statement are considered each financial year in the first scheduled Board meeting of the financial year. Coincident with this process, the company's Auditors submit a report to the Audit Committee regarding the Auditors' observations and judgments of the audit conducted. The Chief Executive Officer is assigned to submit Interim Reports approved by the Board of Directors at scheduled meetings later in the financial year. Each scheduled meeting also includes several other matters on its agenda, including a report on the current results of operations.

The Board of Directors appraises its own work and that of the Chief Executive Officer on an ongoing basis. In addition, a formal appraisal is conducted led by the Chairman of the Board. In 2016, the appraisal was completed in the form of a survey presented to each Board member. Board members sent their responses to an external party, independent of the Board of Directors and the company, who collated the answers. The appraisal was then presented to the Chairman and to other Board members in connection with the Board meeting in January 2017.

Work of the Board in 2016

In the financial year 2016, the Board of Directors held eight (8) Board meetings in addition to the Board meeting following election. Remuneration to the Board and Management in 2016

In 2016, the Chief Executive Officer of the parent company, also President of the Group, and other senior executives drew basic salary and other benefits that are reported in Note 7, page 56–57. Other senior managers mean the nine people that made up Group management in 2015 alongside the Chief Executive Officer.

Remuneration to the CEO

Apart from contracted basic salary, from the financial year 2017 onwards the Chief Executive Officer is also entitled to performance-related pay. Performance-related pay is based on the Group's operating profit and is a maximum of six months' salary. Pension and other customary benefits are additional.

Each year, 35% of gross salary including bonus is provisioned as pension assurance for the CEO. This pension is defined contribution and becomes payable at age 65. According to agreement, the CEO has a notice period from the company's side of 18 months, which cannot be claimed for termination initiated by the CEO. The notice period from the Chief Executive Officer's side is six months. No other remuneration upon termination has been agreed.

Remuneration to other Senior Executives

Other senior executives have basic salary with a performance-related component. The performance-related component is based partly on the Group's and partly on each business area's operating profit and sales growth. Yearly performance-related pay is a maximum of six months' salary. Other senior executives have defined contribution pension agreements on market terms. Other customary benefits are additional. Maximum notice periods of 12 months for termination from the company's side have been agreed for other senior executives. This applies to all apart from one, who has a six month notice period and nine months' severance pay on termination from the company's side.

Incentive plans

The purpose of incentive plans is to promote senior management's commitment to the Group's progress and thus increase value for the Group's shareholders. In previous years, the Group offered senior executives the opportunity to acquire warrants, which have now been terminated. No new incentive schemes were introduced in 2016.

Directors' fees

The Directors' fees resolved by the AGM in April 2016 were 1,625,000 (1,625,000) SEK in 2016 and are allocated according to the table on page 57.

Management and corporate structure

The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for Beijer Electronics' ongoing administration, which covers all matters that are not reserved for the Board and administered by management. Instructions approved by the Board of Directors formalize the Chief Executive Officer's authorization to make decisions regarding investments, company acquisitions and divestments and finance matters.

Group management currently consists of the Chief Executive Officer, the CEO of Westermo, two Regional Directors, the Operations Director, the CFO, the HR Director. The CEO also acts as business area manager for the largest business area, IAS.

Group management meetings are held regularly to discuss the Group's strategic and operational progress and to monitor results of operations. For more information on senior executives, see the Group's website and pages 86-87.

In 2016, Westermo reported to a dedicated Executive Board for the company which includes two members of Beijer Electronics' Board of Directors and the CEO as Chairman. Bo Elisson, from Beijer Electronics' Board of Directors, will be replaced by Joakim Laurén, CFO of the Beijer Electronics Group, in 2017.

Business areas

Beijer Electronics' operations are organized into two business areas. Business area managers are members of Group management and are responsible for the Income Statement and Balance Sheet of their respective areas. In terms of external reporting, the Group's operations are divided into two business areas, IAS and IDC. From the financial year 2017 onwards, the Group will change its segment reporting. The IAS business area will be reported as the Beijer Electronics business entity. The IDC business area will be divided into two business entities under the Westermo and Korenix brands.

Internal control over financial reporting

In tandem with adopting the Interim Report for the third quarter and annual Financial Statement, the company's Auditors report their observations from auditing and evaluating the company's internal controls. The company's Auditors participate in Board meetings and special meetings with the Audit Committee, which enables Board members to ensure that internal control is satisfactory and that reporting to the Board is effective.

According to the Swedish Companies Act, the Board is responsible for internal controls. This responsibility includes issuing annual financial reports. The Board of Directors receives the reports and sets standards on their content and presentation to ensure quality each year. This implies that financial reporting should be expedient by applying applicable accounting standards and other requirements of listed companies. The CEO presents a financial report to the Board of Directors at least once monthly, presented in a manner specified by the Board of Directors in advance. This enables the Board of Directors to monitor any divergences in terms of reporting or content.

Control environment, risk assessment and control structures

Beijer Electronics structures and organizes its operating activities proceeding from decentralized responsibility for profitability. The base of internal controls in a decentralized operation consists of a well-secured process intended to define targets and strategies for each business.

Defined decision-paths, authorizations and responsibilities are communicated through internal instructions, regulations and policies adopted by the Board of Directors. The Group's primary financial controlling documents are the overarching 'Corporate Manual', a reporting manual and audit manual, including instructions for each financial statement. Beijer Electronics has an established control structure to manage the risks the Board of Directors and management consider significant to internal controls regarding the Group's accounting organization.

Accounting managers at all levels play a key role in terms of integrity, skills and the ability to create the environment necessary to achieve transparent and accurate financial reporting. Another important overall control activity is the monthly update on results that is conducted via the internal reporting system, and analyzed and subject to comment in reports to the Board. Monitoring the results of operations includes reconciliation against previously determined targets, the most recent forecast and monitoring established key financial ratios.

In accordance with the Code's stipulations, the Board of Directors has taken a view on the need for a dedicated internal audit function, and concluded that at present, there is no need to create such resources within the Beijer Electronics Group. Coincident with its evaluation of this need, the Board of Directors considered the Group's size, risk outlook and the control functions already established within the Group, which include regular internal audits operated by the central finance function.

Financial reporting and information

Beijer Electronics' communication processes are intended to supply the market with relevant, reliable, accurate and up-to-date information on the Group's progress and financial position.

Financial information is regularly submitted in the form of financial statements, interim reports, annual reports and press releases on important news and events that can materially affect the share price. Presentations and teleconferences for financial analysts, investors and the media are held on the day of publication of annual and quarterly reports. All reports, presentations and press releases are published on the Group's website and intranet.

Insider policy

Beijer Electronics' Board of Directors has adopted an insider policy supplementing Swedish market abuse legislation. This policy states the rules on registering insiders, their holdings and reporting, alerts and prohibition of trading in financial instruments. The complete insider policy is available from the company's website.

Code of Conduct

Beijer Electronics' operations should be conducted with high standards of integrity and ethics. The Group has adopted a number of values that function as a framework for employees and promote good judgment and consistent decision-making. The company's Board of Directors approves the Code of Conduct each year for the Group's operations, which also includes guidelines for the Group's behavior in society in order to ensure its long-term value-creating ability. The document is available in full on the Group's website.
